

ANNEX VIII: Statement on Taiwan

UNESCO
Ms Marie-Ange Théobald
Section Non-Governmental Organizations
7, Place de Fontenoy
75352 Paris SP
F R A N C E

The Global Alliance for LGBT Education (GALE) is a learning community of educators which aims to promote the full inclusion of people who are disadvantaged because of their sexual orientation or sexual identity by identifying, enhancing and sharing educational expertise.

Amsterdam, 29 December 2008

Reference: GALE/PD/2008-20

Subject: statement on Taiwan

---

Dear Ms Théobald,

As was requested in your letter of 17 April 2007 (your ref: ERC/RPO/NGO/76) concerning the request of the Global Alliance for LGBT Education (GALE) to become a cooperative NGO of UNESCO, we herewith provide you with the required statement regarding the status of Taiwan:

The undersigned herewith confirms on behalf of the Board and affiliates of the foundation GALE, to have taken cognizance of the Resolution cited below, and to act henceforth in its accordance. GALE does not have -nor will have - any relations with the authorities of Taiwan.

Yours respectfully,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "P. Dankmeijer", is written above a solid black horizontal line.

Peter Dankmeijer
Executive Director